- 12 Rules of debate for committee recommendations and business motions
- 12.1 The Council normally conducts its business without the need to apply formal rules of debate and the provisions of SOs 12.2-12.11 need not normally be enforced.  - 12.2 Any member may propose an amendment to a committee recommendation or business motion by giving notice of it in writing to the Clerk at least 5 hours before the starting time of the meeting. The Clerk shall provide all members at the meeting with copies of amendments.
 - 12.3 An amendment must relate directly to the subject matter of the recommendation or motion and may refer the recommendation or motion to a committee for consideration or further consideration, delete words, add words, or delete and add words. An amendment must not have the effect of nullifying the recommendation or motion.
 - 12.4 An amendment cannot be discussed until it has been moved and seconded.
 - 12.5 An amendment can be withdrawn at any time by the member moving it.
 - 12.6 The member moving the recommendation or motion may incorporate an amendment into the recommendation or motion.
 - 12.7 Amendments will be discussed together unless the meeting agrees to discuss them separately on the motion of any member.

13.3 Immediately before a vote is taken, any member may request that a vote is recorded. When a request is made, the Chair or person nominated by the Chair shall call the names of all the members and after each name is called the member shall state whether he/she is voting for or against the question put or abstaining. The record of voting shall be recorded in the minutes.

13.4 In the case of an equality of votes the Chair may give a casting vote whether or not he/she gave a first vote.

13.5 If the person presiding at an annual meeting would have ceased to be a member of the Council but for the statutory provisions which preserve the membership of the Chair and Vice-Chair until the end of their term of office, he/she may not give a first vote in an election for Chair of the Council.
